Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Wadnesday - 24 April 1963

25X1

Page 2

Also talked with Murphy about the possibilities of John Conway and bimself coming to the Agency sometime in the near future. (The Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and himself for lanch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McConwoold be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.
Also talked with Murphy about the possibilities of John Comway and himself coming to the Agency sometime in the near future. (The Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Comway and himself coming to the act of the new building.) I added that Mr. McCom would be set of the city until late May and we would discuse specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.	25X1
Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and himself for lunch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McConworld be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Mays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		ea Atomic Energy staff, and loft with him
Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and himself coming our recommendation that we invite Conway and himsely for lunch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McConwould be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Mays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.
Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and himself for lunch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McConworld be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Mays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.
Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and himself for lunch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McConworld be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Mays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.	l l	Also talked with Murphy about the possibilities of John Conway
Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and hearphy for lunch and a tour of the new building.) I added that Mr. McCon would be out of the city until late May and we would discuss specific dates at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Mays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the sout few days.		and blusself coming to the Agency sometime in the near future. (The at a later time. Murphy thanked me for the invitation and said that they would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		Director has approved our recommendation that we invite Conway and would look forward to coming out.  Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Follack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		hearphy for banch and a tour of the new building.) I added that were some
Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		would be out of the city until the easy and we would consider that they
Chatted with several members of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.
Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee concerning hearings before the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Crockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be enade available to us within the next few days.
Representative Wayne Hays' Subcommittee on proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Grockett and his deputy, Herman Poliack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.	25X1
the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration William J. Grockett and his deputy, Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee concerning hearings before William J. Crockett and his deputy. Herman Pollack, have testified but the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		Representative Wayne Hays' beacommittee on proposed amendments to the Subcommittee's hearings have been suspended temporarily. I was advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		the Foreign Service Act. Assistant Secretary of State for Administration advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		William J. Crockett and the deputy, restricted temporarily. I was proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time spent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be made available to us within the next few days.		advised that the Subcommittee had not really gotten into the details of the epent to date has been taken up by Hays' questioning of State witnesses on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the hearings are not yet available but will be enade available to us within the next few days.		proposed amendments as submitted by the Department. Most of the time hearings are not yet available but will be enade available to us within the next few days.		spent to date has been taken up by Haya' questioning of State witnesses the next few days.		on the Department's personnel programs generally. Transcripts of the 5X1
581	rva
	3X I
		1

JOHN 5. WARNER Legislative Counsel